

 A technical line drawing of a turbuckle component. It features a central cylindrical body with a conical base. On the left side, there are two parallel lines extending outwards, representing a cable or hose connection. On the right side, there is a hook-like structure for attachment. The drawing is enclosed in a rectangular frame.	Turbuckle for S11197/8	FS4252
---	-----------------------------------	----------------------